FOREWORD

The Class of 1949 has many memories; the good times and the hard, the pleasures of tasks accomplished, the fellowship in the classroom and in play, the competition on athletic fields and the progress of our many organizations. Keeping these memories in mind, the Gohisca staff has worked, attempting to catch, in part, the spirit of our high school life during the year 1948-1949.

Having arrived at the long-awaited time of graduation, we cannot help but realize that we have just lived some of the best years of our lives. Realizing that we have accomplished much during this time, we hope that we shall be able to use this accumulation of knowledge wisely in our future lives.

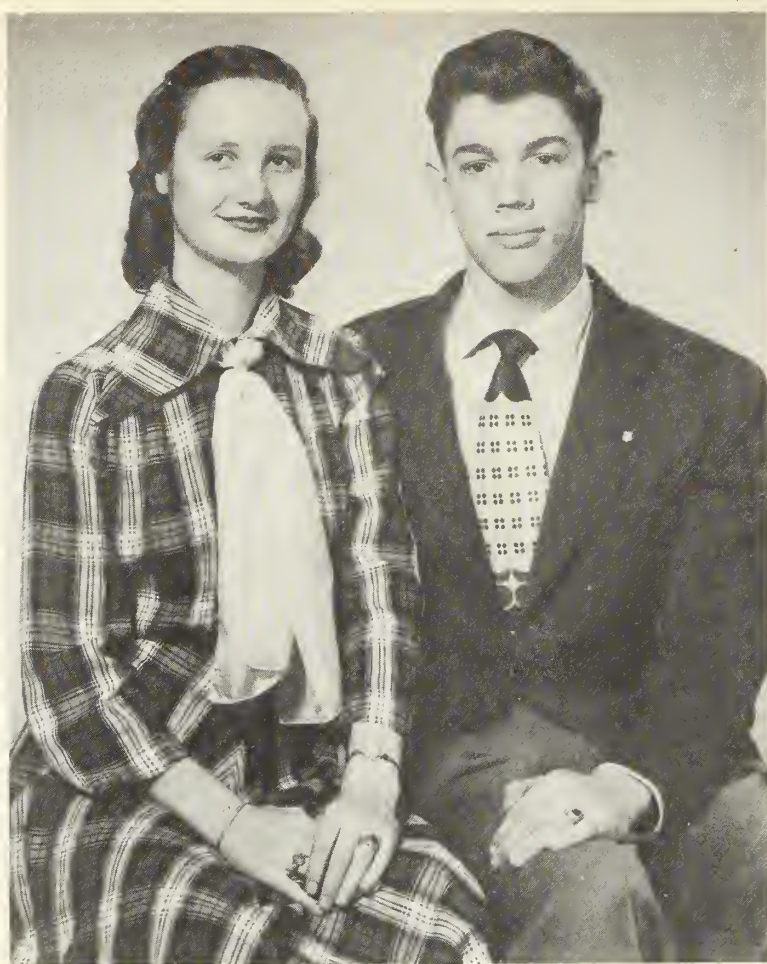

The staff hopes that each of you in future years will find this Gohisca a joyful part of the memories of by-gone days.

D E D I C A T I O N

Miss Carolyn Langston, a graduate of Goldsboro High School, has the same school spirit as in her high school days here. A friend to all, we wish to thank Miss Langston first for her interest in each student through her Guidance Program. Along with being co-advisor to the Senior Class, Miss Langston has volunteered her experience and time to guide the 1949 Gohisca.

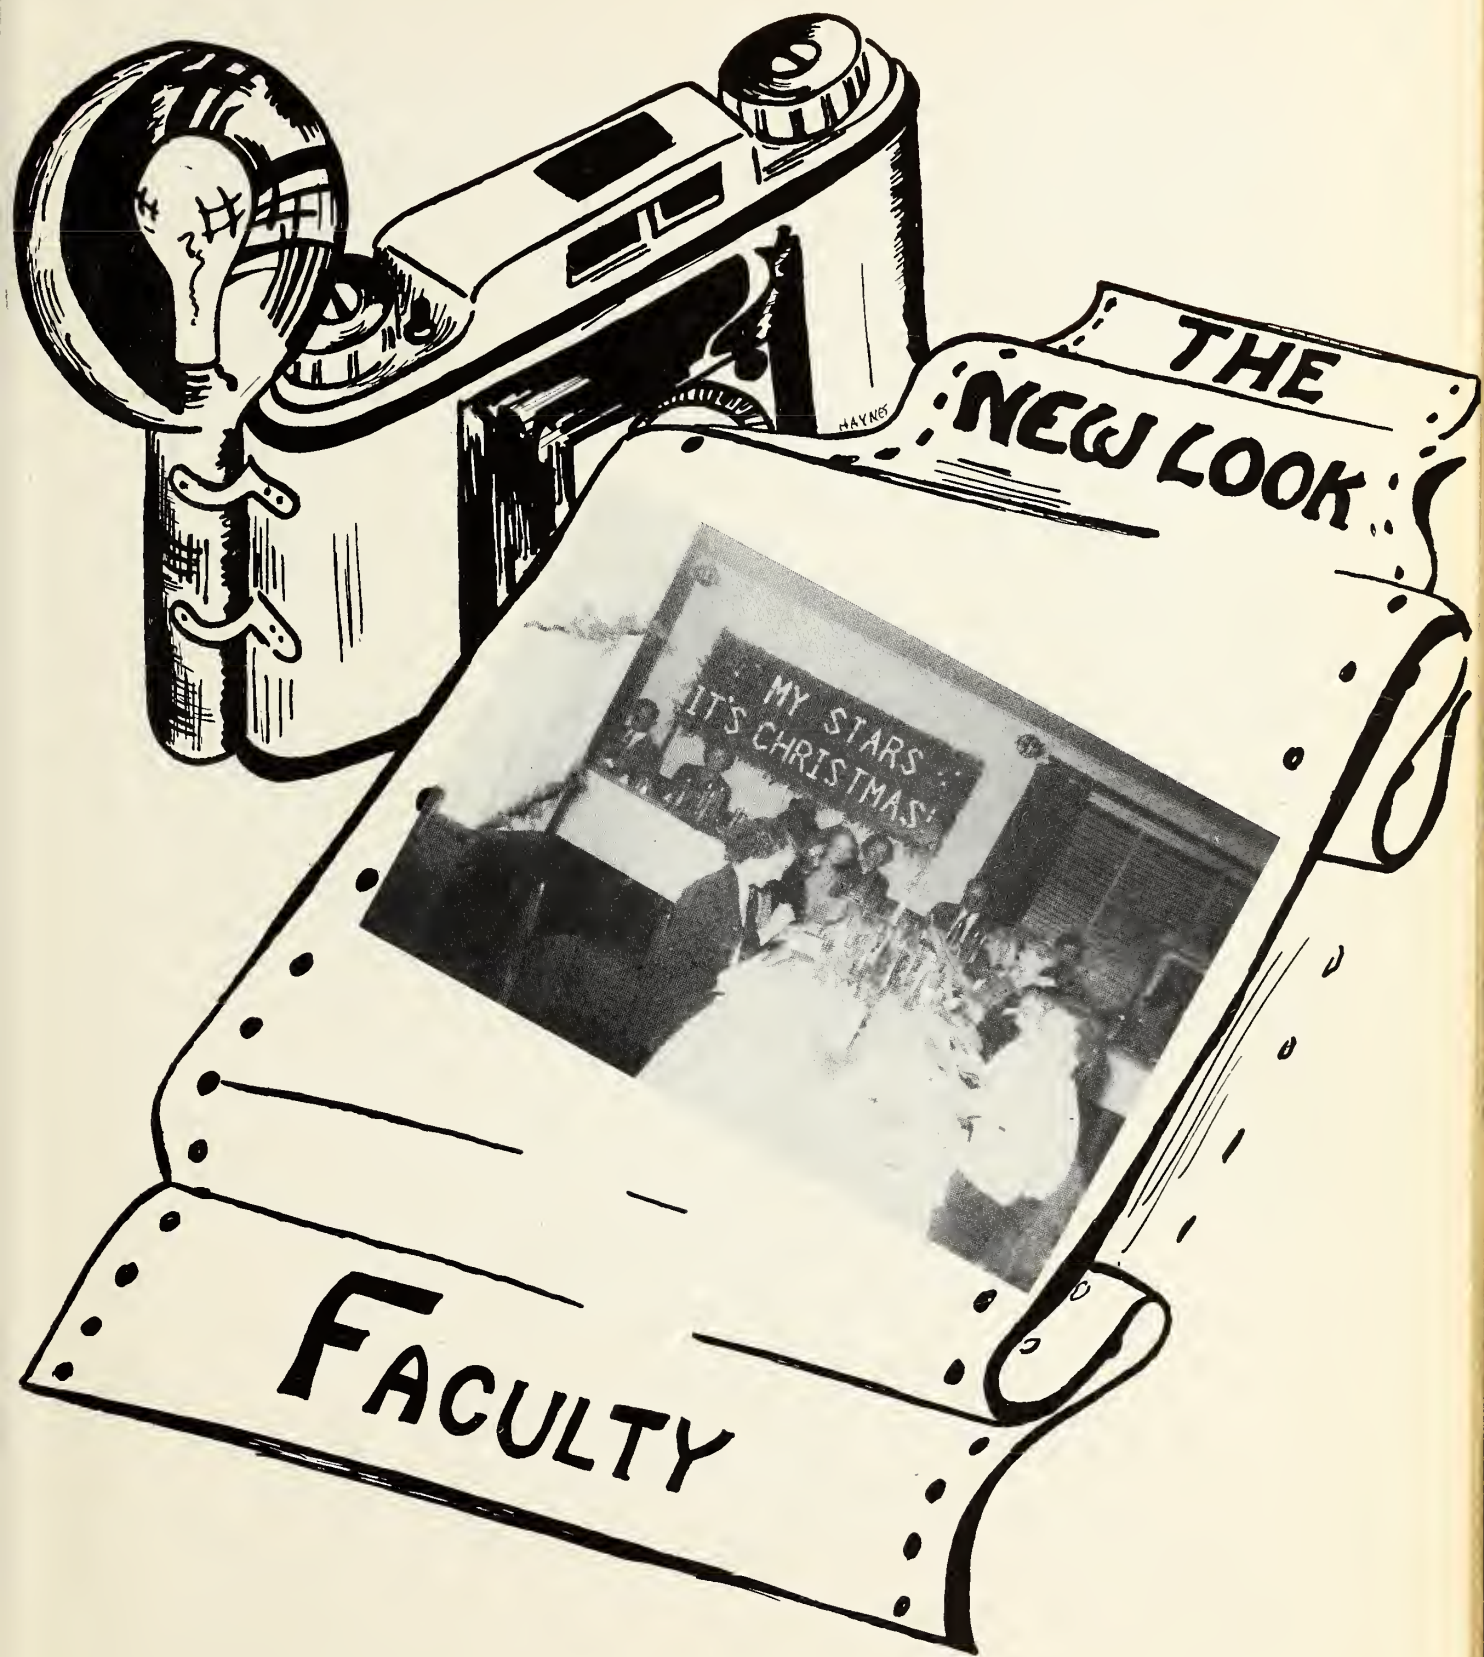

With sincere thanks for the time and effort she has so generously given in the interests of Goldsboro High School, we proudly dedicate this 1949 Gohisca to Miss Carolyn Langston.

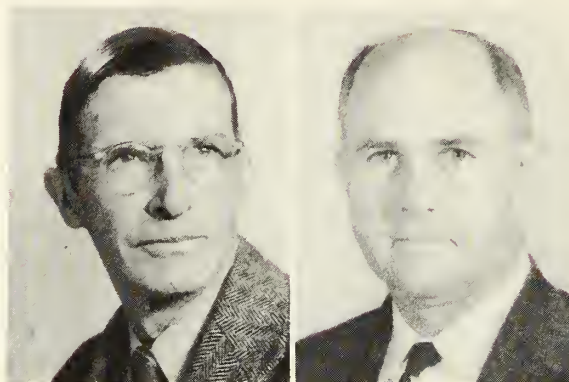

ANNUAL STAFF DEDICATION

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

Abou Ben Culloty, may his tribe increase,
Awoke one night from a deep dream of peace.
And saw within the gloom of his room so cold,
Old Madam Morris writing in a book of gold.
He asked, "What are you writing in that book of thine?"
She replied, "The future of the class of '49."
He looked over her shoulder into this book of gold,
And saw there the future written in letters bold.
He was at first awed, then curiosity took hold.
He wondered how in words the future could be told.
And the Madam said, "You too, in the ways of the future can be wise.
Come closer boy, much closer, now gaze into my eyes.

As I looked into her eyes, I had the vague feeling that I was being watched. Then all of a sudden I was engulfed in a cloud. As the cloud dispersed, I looked for Madam Morris—but she was gone. As I looked around the room and saw no one else there, I came to the conclusion that I was alone. My eyes casually crossed the room—then I casually crossed the room and picked them up. It was a double-cross. As I straightened up, I noticed a man staring at me. Gracious to Betsy, what kind of man is this? He had a suit with very wide shoulders and slim hips. It was a one piece job, seamless, buttonless, and completely devoid of a collar. It was all white and as I looked closer I saw a label with letters on it, B.V.D. Hm-m-m, they must be his initials. Taking a better look at him, I had the strange feeling, that I looked like him, but it couldn't be me. Besides this man was at least forty years old. As I raised my hand to my mouth, the man did the same thing. Oh, No! It couldn't be, but it was! I was looking into a mirror. Looking at the desk, I saw the clock and noting that the big hand pointed at 3:00 and the little one at 11:00, I immediately deduced that it was the year 1969. How did I come to that conclusion? That's a good question! Being confused I decided that the best thing for me was a breath of fresh air.

After leaving the building, I received the first of a series of shocks I was to get. As I stepped off the curb, I was almost knocked over by an under fed 300 pound giant. I looked at him and at a second glance I recognized him as Lovelace, Lovelace Bell and he was cleaning the streets, and with, above all things a whisk broom. He must have taken me seriously, when while playing with the 'Quakes in '48 and having lost four straight games, I told him to do something even if he had to clean it up. After talking awhile the conversation naturally drifted around to the old gang—the Class of '49, I mean. Love said that some of them were still kicking around Goldsboro, but most of them were scattered throughout the country and some even in foreign lands. He said that Annette Edgerton had taken Clum's job as proprietor of the Opera Shoppe, and was doing very nicely. She's a BIG help to the city. Well, she's a help, anyway she's big! Chief soda jerk at the Old Shoppe is Dot Crawford.

Mr. Walter Barwick, proprietor of the Goldsboro Cigar Store, has recently made an addition to his staff of employees, in the person of Jim Belote, who is assistant to the rack boy, succeeding Alvin Joyner, who is now head rack boy. They say Bobby Man O'War Gillikin is doing pretty good now. His trainer, Howard Caudill, and Mrs. Gillikin, the former Lib Handley, are planning on entering him in the Kentucky Derby this year. Jack Rose and his wife, the former Jean Daughtry, have just announced the birth of their fourth set of twins. This makes a grand total of fourteen. (Two more and they'll have enough to graduate.)

The Honorable Isaac (Frank Dail) Braxton, Mayor of Goldsboro, just told Police Chief Brown-Nose Fulghum, to release Dana James Gulley, who by the way, has just divorced her fourth husband. She was brought in two years ago on charges of neckless driving . . . 15 cents is entirely too much to pay.

Mary Bumgarner had just finished her second term as Principal of Dudley High School.

Taking in a little rural life, we find out that Rudolph Alexander is Mayor of Belfast. Betty Hollowell is his secretary-in-chief. Jimmy Purser has just been promoted to Superintendent of the N. C. State Hospital for the Colored Insane. Lucky Jim, not a dull moment out there!

I decided I would like to know more about the old gang, so I went to Greene Hollowell's Fruit and Nut Stand where Tommy Beamon, Assistant Manager in charge of fruits, was working hard, as usual. I bought a paper and looked at the first page. In big letters, I read that Jerry Sandford, prominent resident of Harlem, had just published his last play, a mystery thriller—"Who Broke the Fruit Bowl?"

David Holder is a well known "blow for pay" man now—he plays first trombone in Ray Bryan's band—"The Merry Music Makers."

Mary Gray Hollowell models gownless evening straps at Mademoiselle Bagley's Bargain Basement on Berkshire Boulevard in Boston. (Baby!)

Reginald Griffin has his own radio show now on WLARD. This show is called "The Thinner Man." His program is sponsored by "Sutton's Syncopating Saspirillas."

"Cotton" Kluttz has just been interviewed by Associated Press newsmen. He is the "Geek" for Ringling Brothers Barnum and Bailey Circus. "Cotton's" favorite song is, "I Get the Neck of the Chicken" and his favorite book is "Chicken Every Sunday."

Mike (Checkerhead) Pate is on the Olympic Checker team which goes into action next year at Lower Slobovia, the host-country to the olympiad.

Incidentally Victor Herring is Emperor of Lower Slobovia. Lewis Bryan is his chief Advisor.

Audrey Garris has her own Shmoo farm in the San Fernando Valley. Her chief source of income is "Wild Bill Elliott" who runs a "Shmooburger Stand" in Los Angeles.

Lt. Commander Jimmy Lewis is now stationed in the North Atlantic region. He joined in '49 right after graduation.

Professor Jack Shine, of Paris, is now teaching French at Dix Hill.

Judy Adams may be seen, at any time for the next six weeks, at the Palace Theatre playing the lead in Bennette Daughtry's new gala production, "Life Without Father." Guess who's the Stage Manager for this production. Yep! You guessed it. (Vous Devez Wiggins).

Bobby McLamb can be seen co-starred with Lon Chaney in "Finklestein, Grandson of Frankenstein." A Pete Jones Specialty.

Graham Best, Attorney-at-Law, in New York, finally won a case, the first in fifteen years. He won a case of Four Petunia's at a raffle at the Elk's Club.

Norwood Bizzell is making a small fortune with his flea circus. Norwood's chief source of fleas is from Al Wallace, better known as "Bugs."

Sonny Godwin, director of Acrobatics, at Shaw University, has just published his fourth novel, "Forever Limber."

Just as I got through reading the article about Professor Godwin, the paper blew from my hands and I was again engulfed in that same strange cloud. I fell into my normal state of unconsciousness, and when I awoke I was back again in my room. The cloud was gone, my clothing consisted of pajamas instead of a one piece suit and Madam Morris was also gone. But out of my strange adventure, I salvaged one thing, the future of the Class of '49. We have a lot to look forward to.

HISTORY OF CLASS OF 1949

It is with a vivid memory that we of the Class of '49 remember our high school days. It seems only yesterday that we passed through the portals of G. H. S. to begin to make our mark in its history. But "only yesterday" was four years ago and we found that going from scored Freshmen to sophisticated Seniors was not accomplished in Four Easy Lessons. But, with able leadership, the lessons, though not easy, have been extremely valuable.

Cotton Kluttz led our council as we began to grope our way with unsteady steps toward our goal. Vice-President, Ervin Strickland; Secretary, Ruby Forehand; Treasurer, Ethel Parks, and a firm hand from Ilo Moe Roebuck, Advisor, helped to smooth the rough going. Joyce Bogley and Sonny Goiney nimbly led us as our cheerleaders as we began to make our voices heard in Goldsboro High School. It was during this year that we chose our motto, "Seize Your Opportunity," and individually as well as together, we have been doing just that.

We were off to a good start as we began our Sophomore year in G. H. S. We looked to Monnie Bernstein for leadership as our President, and with help from Roy Bryon, Vice-President; Judy Adams, Secretary; Jerry Worrell, Treasurer; and Ilo Mixan and Geroldine Jones as Advisors, our year proved to be quite a success. Dot Crawford and Hermon Vinson were our cheerleaders.

At the beginning of our Sophomore year we completed and adopted our constitution. This aided us toward a very progressive year.

Low funds in the treasury led to the sponsoring of the movie, "KIDNAPPED," given to the student body. Later on, the proceeds from the movie were used for a class picnic at Camp Tuscororo.

New talent was discovered in our class as according to tradition, we presented the annual Easter program. This was the last project of our Sophomore year, but our eyes were glued to new horizons as we prepared to become "Jolly Juniors."

October 13, 1947 found the class of '49 undertaking their first project as Juniors. Yes, that was the opening date of the Curtis magazine drive. The goal of two thousand dollars was set and with strong determination and unity, we passed our goal by $310.50. Howard Coudill, President; Jerry Sondford, Vice-President; Bennette Doughtry, Secretary; Kenneth Fulghum, Treasurer; together with Jonie Ipock and Eleanor Simpson, Advisors blended their efforts in order to help lead us in a straight path toward our goal. Not to be forgotten are Bessie Culbreth and Mox Epstein, the cheerleaders for our Junior year.

Nearly everyone who enters high school looks forward to his Junior play and we were no different. With apt thought we planned a "Junior Week" to precede the play; the main reason being the advertising advantage it offers. In an assembly at the beginning of the week, the Marshals for 1948-49 were named and as a climax to Junior Week, we proudly presented "Brief Candle" in collaboration with the Goldsmoquers.

Always in the memory of our Junior year, will be the Junior-Senior dance. It was a symbol of much work, but lots of fun.

Seniors—my how the years have flown! Our time was short as we began our Senior year with strength in unity and determination.

We knew that the year wouldn't be easy and capable leadership was imperative so we chose the following as our officers—Bill Elliott, President; Kenneth Fulghum, Vice-President; Betty Hollowell, Secretary; Jimmy Purser, Treasurer; and Cheerleaders Anne Lee and Greene Hollowell. Clifton Britton and Carolyn Longston were responsible for the excellent guidance as Advisors.

The annual was the number one undertaking as seniors but the usual determination was present as we prepared to do the usual "job well done."

Graduation time came before we realized it and the four glorious years of high school are at an end but the "Class of '49" does not end with this. We have left the mark of love and loyalty to the posterity of G. H. S., and separately as well as together will we try for success with the determination and strength that has given us full and profitable high school years.
